Christian Stewardship: 28th Sunday, Ordinary Time

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" LUKE 17:18

Most of us live "easy" lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take all these blessings for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Thanks to those of you who braved the elements, we raised $115 for the Lost Dog/Stray Cat Rescue at our annual Blessing of the Animals.

This week, we also were able to deliver another full bag of toiletries to the clients at A-SPAN. In case you have forgotten, the Faith Formation Office collects toiletries (hotel/trial size only) and laundry supplies (e.g., detergent and dryer sheets) for Arlington's homeless throughout the year.

HELPERS NEEDED

While it's hard to believe, it's already time to prepare for both St. Nicholas' visit and for our Christmas Pageant! If you would be interested in assisting with either of these, please contact Amy in the Faith Formation Office.

And, speaking of helpers, there is ALWAYS a need! We can use volunteers (adults and high-school aged teens) for:

- ❖ the Nursery on Sundays;
- ❖ the Children's Liturgy of the Word on Sundays;
- ❖ office help on both weekdays and Sunday mornings;
- ❖ and special occasions throughout the year (e.g., our First Communion retreat day).

If you are interested in any of these opportunities, please contact Amy or Laura in the Faith Formation Office...and keep reading this column!

CHILD PROTECTION AT ST. ANN

In order to volunteer in activities involving minors at St. Ann School or Parish, it is necessary that an adult undergo a background screening through the Diocese of Arlington, as well as attend a class on best practices for protecting children from abuse. If you have a child and anticipate that you would like to volunteer at some time in his/her activities, we encourage you to do this well in advance.

You may contact Judy Karinishak at St. Ann School or Amy in the Faith Formation office for more information.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: The Election of 2016

Many Catholics seek guidance as the presidential election approaches. Bishop Paul Loverde will be presenting the Church's social teachings using the Arlington Catholic Herald as a social media platform to offer reflections on some themes relevant to our discernment before casting our votes. Starting with the Aug. edition of the Herald, Bishop Loverde will publish a series of articles and reflections under the title "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: The Election of 2016." If you do not receive the Herald by mail, you can find a copy on the welcome table or in the Narthex.

Mornings of Mercy for Divorced Catholics

Join us for a series of morning retreats for those suffering after divorce. The next morning of recollection will be held on November 5th at St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception Church in Fredericksburg, starting at 9 a.m. and ending at noon. The event will include Mass, a talk by Fr. Tom Ferguson, Vicar General of the Diocese of Arlington, and confessions. Continental breakfast provided. To learn more or to register visit www.arlingtondiocese.org/divorced.

Arlington Catholic High Schools' Open House – An Invitation from Bishop O'Connell and Bishop Ireton

Bishop O'Connell High School is hosting an Open House on Sunday, October 16, from 1-4 p.m. All families are invited to come and learn more about the Catholic high school experience. Visit renovated science labs, learn more about the curriculum, meet teachers, administrators and coaches, and take the opportunity to chat with current students. No RSVP is necessary! The presentation will begin at 1 p.m. in the auditorium. For more information, visit the school website, www.bishopoconnell.org or call 703-237-1433. Bishop O'Connell High School is located at 6600 Little Falls Road in Arlington, VA.

Bishop Ireton High School, 201 Cambridge Road, located in Alexandria, VA, will also be hosting an Open House for prospective students on the following weekend. The date is Sunday, October 23rd from 1:00-3:00 pm. The presentation will begin 1:00 pm. We hope you will join us. For more information please call 703-751-7606.

THANK YOU VOTER REGISTRATION VOLUNTEERS:

A big thank you to all the volunteers who assisted with our non-partisan voter registration drive last weekend. Our special appreciation is for Mrs. Mona Murphy Fox, who organized and coordinated the drive. If you still need to register, you have until October 17 to do so for this fall's election. You can call 703-228-3456 to find out more.

LOOKING AT THE PAST:

The Initiative on Catholic Social Thought and Public life is sponsoring a conversation on "Georgetown, Slavery and Catholic Social Thought on October 12th, 2016 from 7:00 to 8:30 pm at the Lohrlink Auditorium at Georgetown University. Georgetown historically participated in slavery and is looking for opportunities to be active in working towards racial justice. We will be providing a public forum on the response Catholic Social Thought provides in regards to this important issue.

LEARN MORE ABOUT ADVOCATING FOR JUSTICE:

All are invited to attend the Fall SALT (Social Action Linking Together) Conference at Virginia International University (4401 Village Drive, Fairfax, Conference Room VD-1020) from 9 to 11:30 am on Saturday, Oct. 15. Mark Shriver, President of Save the Children Action Network, will give the keynote address. Other speakers will examine affordable housing and poverty issues in Virginia and explain how to advocate for social justice effectively at the state level.

Beginning Course in English as a Second Language (ESL) at St. Ann:

Music Reflection

Thank you. How many times a day do we say it? More importantly, how many times a day do we mean it? God has given us, and still continues to give us, so many gifts over and over. Have we remembered to say thank you?

Our music this weekend is an opportunity to say "thank you" and by singing we use one of His greatest gifts, when we stop to give Him glory. I think everyone will find familiar tunes at our Masses this weekend. Please take the time to breathe deeply and sing fully and enthusiastically. Use your whole body as your instrument when you pray. Also, please don't forget that if you have a young musician that is interested in participating in one of our two young people's music ensembles (Joyful Noise for grades 2-6 or 4 Hymn for the 7th-12th graders), we are still accepting new recruits. If you have questions, please contact Jamie Sample: jsample@stann.org.

Marriage Enrichment Evening – Love for a Lifetime

Married and engaged couples of all ages welcome! This event will feature popular speakers David and Margaret Bereit who together have helped hundreds of couples prepare for marriage, conducted relationship classes, and led numerous marriage enrichment programs. The program will take place on Friday, November 11th at St. Agnes Parish Hall, in Arlington, from 7 to 9 pm. Desserts and drinks will be provided. The price is $15 per couple, and you can register for the event using the website www.loveforever.eventbrite.com. If you have any other concerns or questions, contact Nancy McKeague at the Office for Family Life (703-841-3807).

Fall Men's Retreat: Perfecting the Soul through Faith, Hope Love and Charity – November 18-20

To conclude the Year of Mercy, take a weekend for quiet prayer and reflection at the San Damiano Retreat Center in White Post, Virginia (22663). This retreat will be led by Father Basil Cole, O.P., who is Professor of Moral, Spiritual and Dogmatic Theology at the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, D.C. The cost is $265 until November 4 and $290 after that date; need-based scholarships are available. For more information, please visit www.arlingtondiocese.org/fmr.

"Franciscan Order of St. Thomas Orientation"

The Secular Franciscan Order St. Thomas More Fraternity invites married and single laity, who may be called to live the Gospel life as a professed lay tertiary, to attend an orientation from 1:10 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. in Parish Hall of Our Lady of Lourdes, located at 830 S. 23rd Street, Arlington, on Sunday October 9. For more details about this special vocation, call Bill Harrison at 703-912-4845.

Refugee Resettlement in the U.S. – With Anastasia Brown and Patricia Maloof

Do you have questions about the need and process for resettling refugees in the United States? St. Ann Adult Religious Enrichment Committee is hosting a presentation by two experts in the field. On Monday, October 17, 2016, a program focusing on Refugee Resettlement in the U.S.: A National and Local Humanitarian Response will be held in the St. Ann Parish Hall from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. We are very fortunate that such knowledgeable persons have accepted our invitation to speak at St. Ann. Anastasia Brown currently serves as Director of the Division of Refugee Services in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Refugee Resettlement. Prior to this position, she served for many years as the Director of Refugee Resettlement for the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. Patricia S. Maloof is the current Program Director of Migration and Refugee Services of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington and has previous experience at the national level with resettling refugees and other legal immigrants.

We hope many of you will come and participate in this very timely program.

Arlington Theology on Tap – "It's Hard Being Green: The Catholic Environmentalist"

Join young professionals from around the Diocese for an inspiring talk every month at 7:30 pm at O'Sullivan's Irish Pub, located at 3207 Washington Boulevard in Clarendon (Arlington). The next TOT will be held on Monday, October 17, and will feature Dr. Marie George, Professor of Philosophy at St. John's University. For more information, contact Brendan Gotta at 703-841-2549 or send an email to yam@arlingtondiocese.org.

Join the Catholic Sports Club in Northern VA

The Arlington Young Adult Ministry has formed a Catholic Sports Club, with events taking place at locations around the Diocese. During the fall, St. Leo the Great will host soccer and football, and basketball will be offered at the Church of the Nativity. The first parish is located at 3700 Old Lee Highway in Fairfax, and the second is on 6400 Nativity Lane in Burke. For info, call Brendan Gotta: 703-841-2549.

Consider Serving the Church by Singing in the Arlington Diocesan Choir!

If you can read music and like to sing, you might consider serving the Church by singing in the Arlington Diocesan Choir which is a chorus consisting of music directors, choir members, cantors and organists, from all over the Arlington Diocese. The Diocesan Choir is open to all Catholics in our diocese who have reached their eighteenth birthday and who commit to attendance at scheduled rehearsals and liturgies. The choir sings at the principal Diocesan liturgies, which includes the Blue Mass, the Marriage Jubilee Mass, Rite of Election, Diocesan Confirmation, and also Ordinations. Previous choral experience and the ability to read music are preferable. For additional information, please call the Office for Sacred Liturgy at 703-841-2554. Please consider taking advantage of this unique opportunity!
